

URPE AT THE ALLIED SOCIAL SCIENCE ASSOCIATIONS
JANUARY 5 - 7, NEW ORLEANS
(All Sessions at the Sheraton, Except One Joint Session)

{emails to be added (hopefully!) by 4/1/01}

Friday, January 5

8:00 a.m.

I. Gender, Race and Class

Ann Davis, Marist College-Patriarchal Daughters: Bourgeois Property Relations and Psychic Lives

Mary King, Portland State University-Protest, Violence and Black Economic Progress

Paddy Quick, St. Francis College-Sellers of Commodities vs. Sellers of Labor Power: Understanding Class in the United States Today

Shianne Osterreich Warner, Ithaca College -Engendering International Wage Differentials: The Effect of Women's Wages and Product Standardization on the Manufacturing Terms of Trade for Export Promoting Countries

Sarah Wilhelm, Fort Lewis College-The Impact of EEOC Enforcement on the Wages of Black and White Women: Does Class Matter?

Michael Zweig, State University of New York, Stony Brook-The Working Class Majority

Discussants: The Presenters

Room: Oakley

II. Phases of Capitalist Development

Robert Albritton, York University, Toronto--Capitalism in The Future Perfect Tense

Gerard Dumenil, Universite Paris-X Nanterre --Periodizing Capitalism: Technology, Institutions, and Relations of Production

Alan Freeman, University of Greenwich, England--'New Paradigm' Boom or Return to Classical Imperialism?

Thomas Sekine, Aichi-Gakuin University, Japan--The Process of Ex-Capitalist Transition

Richard Westra, University of the Bahamas--Phases of Capitalism and Post-Capitalist Social Change

Discussants: The Presenters

Room: Southdown

10:15 a.m.

I. The Mexican Economy and the Border Region

Paul Cooney, City University of New York-- Political Challenges at the Frontier of Neoliberalism-the Mexico-US Border Region

Willie Cortez, El Colegio de la Frontera Norte--What is Behind Increasing Wage Inequality in Mexico?

James Cypher, California State University, Fresno--Mexico's Economic Treadmill: Export-Led Underdevelopment

R. Scott Frey, University of North Florida--The Migration of Hazardous Industries to the Maquiladora Centers of Northern Mexico

Cuahtémoc Calderón Villarreal, Universidad Autónoma de Cd. Juárez and Eduardo
Mendoza Cato, Universidad Autónoma de Coahuila--Comparative Study on the Labor Demand in the Maquiladora Industry in Mexico

Janet Tanski and Dan French, New Mexico State University-Controlling Interests:
Concentration of Share Ownership of Publicly-traded Industrial Stocks in Mexico

Discussants: The Presenters

Room: Oakley

II. Unemployment, Poverty and Economic Policy

Patrick Mason, Florida State University- Trends in Poverty and Unemployment in the Current Expansion

Charles Clark, St John's University- Drowning in the Rising Tide: Why the Poor Have Been Left Out of the Clinton Expansion

Marilyn Power, Sarah Lawrence College-A Provisioning Approach to Analyzing Welfare
Reform: the Usefulness of the Labor Theory of Value for Feminist Economics

Mathew Forstater, University of Missouri, Kansas City-Towards a Comprehensive Heterodox
Political Economy of Unemployment: Methodology, Theory and Policy

Discussants: The Presenters

Room: Southdown

2:30 p.m.

I. Critiques of Brenner's Falling Rate of

Profit Argument

Gerard Duménil, Université Paris-X Nanterre -Manufacturing and Global Turbulence.
Brenner's Misinterpretation of Profit Rate Differentials

Mark Glick, University of Utah-Brenner on Competition

John Rogers, University of Utah-Comparing Profit Rates in the U.S. and Japan

Anwar Shaikh, The New School for Social Research-Explaining the Global Economic Crisis

Discussants: The Presenters

Room: Oakley

II. Economics, Postcoloniality and the Discourse of Modernism

S. Charusheela, University of Hawaii-Contours of a non-Modernist Discourse I

Robert Dimand, Brock University- Economists and "the Other" Before 1914

Jennifer Olmsted, Occidental College-Can Economics Move Beyond an Orientalist Approach to Islam?

Suzanne Bergeron, University of Michigan- The "Challenge of Inclusion" and the Representation of Economic Agents in Contemporary World Bank Literature

Eiman Zein-Elabdin, Franklin and Marshall College--Contours of a non-Modernist Discourse II

Discussants:

Drucilla Barker, Hollins University

Antonio Callari, Franklin & Marshall College

Ulla Grapard, Colgate University

Tony Maynard, Franklin & Marshall College

Room: Southdown

Saturday, January 6

8:00 a.m.

I. Historical and Comparative Perspectives on Women's Paid Employment

(Joint with IAFFE. In Hilton Hotel)

Marilyn Power, Sarah Lawrence College and Ellen Mutari, Richard Stockton College- Wages as a Social Practice: A Feminist Contribution to Theories of Wage Determination

Deborah Figart, Richard Stockton College- Defining Equality: The Struggle for Women's Wages in the Late Twentieth Century

Irene Brugel, South Bank University-Feminization and Defeminization of Employment: A Comparative Perspective

Stephanie Seguino, University of Vermont- Trade, Gender Wage Differentials, and Productivity Growth in Developing Countries

Günseli Berik, Yana van der Muelen Rogers, and Joseph Zveglich, Jr., University of Utah- Globalization and the Gender Earnings Gap: Evidence from an Emerging East Asian Economy

Discussants: Janice Peterson, State University of New York-Fredonia

Paulette Olsen, Wright State University

Room: Grand Salon 4 in the Hilton

II. New Developments in Marxian Economic Theory and Research

George DeMartino, University of Denver-Against Neoliberalism: The Normative Foundations of Progressive Economic Policymaking

Michael Hillard, University of Southern Maine-Conflict and Accommodation at S.D.Warren: Memory and Workers' Response to Decline at a Maine Paper Mill

Max Fraad Wolff, University of Massachusetts, Amherst-Toward a Class Analytic Understanding of the Stock Market

Masato Aoki, Simmons College-Squeaky Wheels and Growing a la Carte Menu: A Class Analysis of the "Education Crisis"

Lorraine Carroll and Joseph Medley, University of Southern Maine-The Hungry Ghost: Capitalist Labor Markets in Thailand

Robert Burns, University of Massachusetts, Amherst-Overdetermination and Class in the Formation and Movement of Prices

Discussants: Stephen Cullenberg, University of California, Riverside

Carole Biewener, Simmons College

Mwangi wa Githinji, Florida Atlantic University

Blair Alpert-Sandler, Rethinking Marxism

Kenneth Levin, University of Massachusetts, Amherst

Room: Bayside B

10:15

I. Marxism: Money and Value

Jerome Joffe, St. John's University -Labor Value Analytics of Changing Relations of Production in Medicine

Mark Lautzenheiser and Yavuz Yasar, University of Utah-The Profit Rate-Interest Rate Relation in the Writings of Karl Marx

Abelardo Mariña Flores, Universidad Autónoma Metropolitana, Azcapotzalco- Determination of Market Value Within a Framework of Structural Disequilibrium

Fred Moseley, Mount Holyoke College-The Development of Marx's Theory of the Distribution of Surplus-Value in the Manuscript of 1861-63

Steve Shuklian, Marshall University-Karl Marx on the Foundations of Monetary Theory

Discussants:

Mark Lautzenheiser, University of Utah

Fred Moseley, Mount Holyoke College

Kamran Nayeri, University of California, Berkeley

Steve Shuklian, Marshall University

Paul Wetherly, Leeds Metropolitan University

Room: Poydras

II. The EMU and Exchange Rate Instability

Philip Arestis, South Bank University-The Causes of the Euro's Instability

Jan Toporowski, South Bank University-Kaleckian Perverse Exchange Rate Dynamics and the Euro

Victor Culiuc, International Monetary Fund and Tracy Mott, University of Denver-Labor Market Adjustment in the European Monetary Union

Robert Blecker, American University and Thomas Palley, AFL-CIO-Open Economy Macroeconomics with Foreign Currency Denominated Debt

Eleni Paliginis, Middlesex University, United Kingdom--The Euro and the EU Periphery

Discussants: The Chair and Presenters

Room: Southdown

2:30

I. Globalization, Trade and Development

Rania Antonopoulos, New York University- Trade Deficits and Exchange Rates in Southern Europe: The Case of Greece

Ron Baiman, Roosevelt University-Marx, Sraffa and Nell: Modeling International Trade and capital Flows

Rafat Fazeli, University of Redlands-The Prospects of Women in the Development Process: a Comparative Study of Iran and Mexico

Ming-Chang Tsai, National Taipei University-The Future Demise of the Social Structure of Accumulation in East Asia?

Richard Vogel, SUNY at Farmingdale- Natural Hazards, Foreign Direct Investment and Sustainable Development

James Warner, College of Wooster and Jeff Bookwalter, University of Montana-Intra-Household Bargaining and Expenditure Outcomes

Discussants: The Presenters

Room: Poydras

II. Marxism and Society

Kamran Nayeri, University of California, Berkeley-Socialism and the Market: The Calculation Debate Revisited

Terry McDonough, National University of Ireland, Galway-Ireland's Colonial Status: Economic, Political and Cultural Considerations in the 19th Century

Luiz Augusto Estrella Faria and José Ricardo Tauile, Universidade Federal do Rio de Janeiro-The Transformations of Contemporary Capitalism and their Nature as per Marx's Analysis

Paul Wetherly, Leeds Metropolitan University-'It's the Economy Stupid.' Marxism and Economic Determinism: a Clarification and Defense of an Old-Fashioned Principle

Discussants: Al Campbell, University of Utah

Ismael Hossein-zadeh, Drake University

Jerome Joffe, St. John's University

Abelardo Mariña Flores, Universidad Autónoma Metropolitana, Azcapotzalco

Room: Southdown

Sunday, January 7

8:00 am

I. Neoliberal Order and Disorders

Gerard Duménil, Université Paris-X Nanterre --Recent Profitability, Technical, and Growth Trends: A New Phase of Capitalism?

Dominique Levy, CEPREMAP, Paris--The Costs and Benefits of Neoliberalism: A Class Analysis

Robert Pollin, University of Massachusetts, Amherst--Globalization, Inequality And Financial Instability: Confronting The Marx, Keynes and Polanyi Problems in the Advanced Capitalist Economies

Edward Wolff, New York University and the Jerome Levy Institute--The Stagnating Fortunes of the Middle Class

Discussants: The Presenters

Room: Bayside B

II. Trade, Deficits Export Led Growth and Economic Policy

(Joint with ASE)

Anwar Shaikh, New School for Social Research-Comparative Advantage versus Competitive Advantage: Theory, Evidence and Policy

Jamee Moudud, Sarah Lawrence College-Harrod versus Thirlwall-A Reassessment of Export-Led Growth

Tom Palley, AFL-CIO-The Macro Foundations of Trade: Globalization, Trade Rivalries and the Dangers of Competitive Devaluations

Robert Blecker, American University-The Fallacy of Composition and the Limits of Export-Led Growth

Discussants: The Presenters

Room: Oakley

10:15 a.m.

I. Labor and Skilling

Cyrus Bina, University of Minnesota, Morris and Chuck Davis, Minnesota Nurses Association-Technology, Skill Formation and Universal Labor Contingency

Nance Goldstein, University of Southern Maine- Employment, Mobility and Training
Outcomes: Case Study of Internet Mediated Financial Services

Eric Nilsson, California State University, San Bernardino-New Empirical Test of the Industry Wage Contour Hypothesis

Thomas Palley, AFL-CIO-The Economics Of Union Density: A Multiple Equilibrium Model

Nancy Rose, California State University, San Bernardino-Public Employment Programs, Workfare and Welfare

Discussants: The Presenters

Room: Bayside B

II. Urban Regional Economic Growth and Inequality

Gregory DeFreitas, Hofstra University-The Growth of the Working Poor in New York: Recent Trends and Promising Policies

Gary Dymski, University of California, Riverside, California State University-Federal Housing Policies, Urban Sprawl and Racial Polarization in Southern California

Ellen Houston, Economic Policy Institute-The Impact of Regional Economic Growth on Crime in the United States

Zargos Madjd-Sadjadj, California Department of Industrial Relations- Globalization and Regional Inequalities in Canada and the United States

Enrico Marcelli, University of California, Los Angeles-Estimates and Policy Implications of Informal Employment in California

Discussants: Tom Hall, Milken Institute

Gregory DeFreitas, Hofstra University

Heather Boushey, Economic Policy Institute

David Wells, Arizona State University

Gary Dymski, University of California, Riverside

Room: Oakley

1:00 p.m.

I. The U.S. Economy

Jim Devine, Loyola Marymount University- Profitability and Stagflation: More Evidence

Edwin Dickens, Drew University-The Causes of the Great Inflation 1965-79

Reza Fazeli, California State University, Fullerton-Globalization and the US Macroeconomic Performance: How Far Can It Go?

Adil Mouhammed, University of Illinois, Springfield-Nature and Causes of the US Expansion of the 1990s.

Edward Wolff, New York University-What's Behind the Recent Rise in Profitability?

Ajit Zacharias, Jerome Levy Economic Institute-Interindustrial Profit Rate Differentials: Theory and Evidence

Discussants: The Presenters

Room: Southdown

II. New Principles

Peter Dorman, Evergreen College-The Implications of Recent Critiques of General Equilibrium Theory for Teaching Introductory Economics Courses

Steven Cohn, Knox College-Uncommon Common Ground: Heterodox Critiques of Micro Principles Texts

Neva Goodwin, Global Development and Environment Institute-Contextualizing What We Teach: A New Microeconomics Text

Jonathan Harris, Global Development and Environment Institute-Teaching Environmental Economics: Alternative Approaches

Frederick Lee, University of Missouri, Kansas City-Theory Creation and the Methodological Foundations of Post Keynesian Microeconomics

Discussants: The Presenters

Room: Bayside B